

I believe all deaf and hard of hearing people should be equal to hearing people. We have enough problems dealing with other things without having to deal with problems calling other people. That is discrimination!